The Hammond-Harwood House in downtown Annapolis is pleased to announce the launch of Curator led Brown Bag Lunch Tours thanks to a grant from the Arts Council of Anne Arundel County. There will be a tour at 12:30pm lasting 20 minutes on Tuesdays. After the tour, participants are encouraged to enjoy their lunches in our gardens. Tours will be on a different topic every week ranging from decorative arts to social history, and architecture. Tours cost $5 per person. Reservations are not required.

The Hammond-Harwood House Museum, dubbed the jewel of Annapolis, is an 18th century Anglo-Palladian house that contains some of the nation's premier fine and decorative arts collection. The museum is open for tours, groups, and school programs Tuesday to Sunday from April 1 to December 31. Tours are conducted on the hour from 12 noon to 4 p.m. To learn more, visit www.hammondharwoodhouse.org or call 410-263-4683. The museum is located at 19 Maryland Avenue, Annapolis, MD 21401. Tours are presented by our Curator Rachel Lovett, a graduate of the Harvard Museum Studies Graduate program and Endicott College. Rachel most recently served as the Executive Director of the Hanover Historical Society in southeastern Massachusetts before joining the museum in 2014.
